The friendly staff will help you find places to eat and shop, as well as events and local attractions where you and your friends can take a break from studying.

Heritage Station

Located in the heart of downtown Huntington, Heritage Station has an abundance of local shops to keep students coming back for more. These shops include trendy and unique clothing and gift stores such as Birds of a Feather Boutique, Common Ground Shoppes and Lamb's Gate Market. Visitors looking for locally owned, one-of-a-kind spots to grab a bite or a drink, can quench their appetite at Bottle and Wedge, Butter It Up, Let's Eat, SIP Wine Bar and Summit Beer Station. Brown Dog Yoga offers a place to unwind after a stressful day of completing assignments or taking exams, and Brand Yourself can add a little pizazz for any Marshall event with regional apparel and personalized shirts, bumper stickers, banners, or signs.

Take a piece of Huntington home.

The Red Caboose is home to distinctive, handcrafted artisan pieces that can only be found in this region. You can easily find singularly interesting pieces to decorate your dorm or apartment, as well as unique Marshall shirts to fit your style. They also offer one-of-a-kind coal items, Blenko glass pieces, handmade jewelry and even postcards to send to family and friends!
